

TEAMS AND ROSTER (COACH)

Additionally, the coach can choose to import a player from a different roster by tapping on the Import Player button. Any additional changes can be made to the imported player.

Once the player details have been either added for new players, or imported for existing players, the user will need to tap the Confirm button on the popup window to finish adding them.